Technic acquires majority shareholding of Premier Lacquers Ltd in the UK

Cranston, RI, USA – Technic is pleased to announce it has completed the recent purchase of a majority stake in Premier Lacquers, an electrophoretic lacquer company based in the UK. The purchase will enable Technic to significantly expand manufacturing, marketing, and distribution of electrophoretic lacquers to the company’s extensive portfolio of metal finishing technologies.

Since its formation in 2012, Premier Lacquers has enjoyed an ever-growing customer base for electrophoretic lacquers and associated products for industrial and decorative manufacturing throughout the world.

“Technic has been a market leader for more than 75 years and is well respected for innovative surfacing finishing technology and outstanding customer service. We believe this partnership will significantly enhance our brand and our ability to service current as well as new customers and markets”
